

 SPC Legal

Globalized Law Firm

SPC Legal International Services LLP

SPC Legal International Services LLP (SPC Legal) operates in its current form since 1989, however its history far exceeds this date. The result of mergers, acquisitions and name changes as partners retired for over 50 years has resulted in our current firm.

Recently, as a part of our constant modernization process the firm has adopted a new image and thus changing its name to SPC Legal which we believe will have more longevity.

Established under the principles of professionalism and achieving success for our clients we have created an innovative, client oriented, responsive firm. Our firm is committed to provide our diverse client base with unsurpassed, complete and innovative professional legal service. We know our clients are the reason for our firm's success and we make every effort to design their representation around proven cost-effective strategies.
